

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 10, 2011

Matthew 13:3--9

- Each time we pray, the seeds of God's word and love are scattered. Each time we speak the kind word, do a kind deed, care for others in any way, the seed is bearing fruit. Our heart is the soil. Like a varied garden, the heart is many-sided. Our hurts, bitterness, and sins weaken and destroy good soil.
- God is the one who purifies the heart so that the Word of God takes effect.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 17, 2011

Matthew 13:24-30

- ⤴ We had a fellow on a team once who was reluctant to pass the ball--he liked to score the goals himself. When he did pass, we often scored; other times he didn't pass, and he didn't score. We took the good with the bad. Nothing is perfect.
- ⤴ Jesus seems to be saying the same about the growth of the kingdom of God. Isn't it the same with all of us? There is a bit of the best in the worst of us and a bit of the worst in the best. Holiness is closeness to God, not perfection.

July 24, 2011

Matthew 13:44-46

- Jesus' message is that the kingdom of God has come among us now. In him, God is very close to the world and to us.
- The marks of this kingdom are qualities like compassion, justice, love, mercy, peace of mind and heart, closeness to God. These are treasures of life; to live by them, we will give up other concerns.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 31, 2011

Mathew 14:13-21

- Think of the food left over. The twelve baskets seem a lot and we're not told what happened to them. The food had been the food of the poor-barley bread and sardines.
- In Jesus' mind, this meal feeds us today. Enough was left over to feed the souls of the world for all time. The apostles who fed the crowd still feed us today in the word of Jesus and in the Eucharist, and each time we receive the bread of the Eucharist.
